August 17, 2026

Present: Sue Richart, Bill Sebright, Susan Dechant, Rose Kalamarides, Joe Barraca, and Janet Thomas.

Although not part of the official agenda, a pre agenda and discussion was held. A healthy discussion was had about Kettle Falls, Meyers Falls and surrounding areas. The meeting began at 9:50

Next meeting will be at the welcome center in Northport

Minutes: Sue moved and Bill seconded a motion to approve the most recent minutes, May, June and July, as corrected. Motion carried.

Financial Report: Sue presented the financial report.

KFHC: Rette, excused due to the fires in the area.

Indian Agency: There is not much going on pending the completion of the replacement of the steps front and back which are unsafe. The project had several setbacks which slowed the project.

SCHS: NeWGS will be at the NEWashington Fair this year. There will be great door prizes at the seminar at the LDS church on September 19th.

NPHS Welcome Center: The Welcome Center is being repainted inside Webley Lumber gave them flooring. They are repairing the fence and making a park out of the whole block. It will include seating circles. The Inchelium Cultural Research Center visited and toured historic sites on Sheep Creek.

Clayton/Deer Park: 1) Clayton Brickyard Days went well. The Friday night movie had the largest crowd so far. The parade had more entries than the last few years.

A woman brought a picture of a stock certificate for the Clayloon Uranium Company, dated November 1957. It was signed by Byrl and Gene Goodwin. They grew up in Clayton.

The Friday night movie had the largest crowd so far. The parade had more entries than the last few years.

Robert Whayley plans to walk 20 miles a day taking his flag to Washington D. C. He figures it will take him 120 days. His route will be down to Boise then and follow I-80 to Washington D.C.

We had a successful Historical Society booth at “Friday Night on Main.”

We will have an exhibit at the Clayton Community Fair August 28, 29, 30.

the board members.

Voices of the Past: There was not much local help available to work on the interview recordings from our work in 2006-2009. So, a YouTube channel tech is working on a sample update to current standards.

Fish Fur God and Gold: Richard Wilner is now printing copies of the book and Joe is trying to find other distributors beside SCHS.
